A LITTLE LOCAL GUIDE TO

New York City

Your neighborhood is the starting point

UNITED STATES

Good days, small discoveries & a rhythm of your own.

HELLO, TRAVELER

Find your little corner.

You do not need to see everything. Start with a place you would enjoy coming back to.

01 Greenpoint

Neighbourhood life and work. Choose a home that makes your daily food and work stops easy to repeat. Walk the last stretch before deciding whether it suits the stay you want.

02 Lower Manhattan / nearby central districts

Professional and cultural access. Choose a home that makes your daily food and work stops easy to repeat. Walk the last stretch before deciding whether it suits the stay you want.

First morning

Put your bags down, find something to eat and take one short walk near your home. Learn the return route while it is light. A familiar corner is a good first discovery.

A DAY TO EASE INTO

Start small. Leave room.

Three ways to shape a first day. Use transport between areas when needed; there is no need to rush through every stop.

1

A gentle beginning

Explore Greenpoint

Start with this as your first anchor, then leave time for a drink or a meal before deciding what comes next.

2

A proper pause

A slice & a neighborhood wander

Give this its own pocket of time. Pick the part that interests you rather than trying to cover everything at once.

3

One small adventure

Domino Park walk

Keep this as another day's possibility if the first two plans already feel full. There is no prize for finishing the list.

A FEW GOOD REASONS TO GO OUT

Follow your curiosity.

Make a Williamsburg day around a park, the waterfront and one performance if something interests you. Keep other boroughs for separate outings. The point is to notice the streets between stops, not spend every free hour changing trains for another landmark.

Music Hall of Williamsburg performance

Choose this when you want a different pace from the rest of your day. Keep the next commitment flexible.

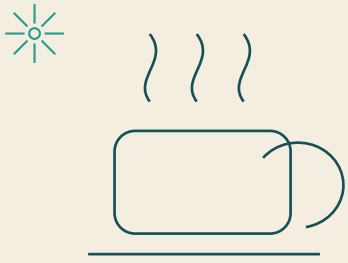

BAM performance

Choose this when you want a different pace from the rest of your day. Keep the next commitment flexible.

ONE SMALL WAY INTO A PLACE

Stay for lunch.

A slice & a neighborhood wander

A pizza slice is an easy meal to build into a walking day. Delis, bodegas and the city's broader food scene offer plenty of other possibilities. Pick one neighborhood to explore through food rather than spending the whole day traveling between famous counters.

Make it your own

Choose the version that suits your appetite and dietary needs. Ask about fillings, sauces and preparation rather than assuming a dish is the same everywhere.

A little ritual

Return to a place you liked. Learn a name, notice what changes on the menu, and let an ordinary meal become part of the memory.

FOR THE DAYS YOU WORK

A desk.
A little balance.

Leave part of the week ordinary. A comfortable working day gives the exploring days room to breathe.

Greendesk · Greenpoint / selected branch

A work option to ask about. Choose the access plan, call arrangements and opening hours that match your own schedule.

Industrious · Selected NYC branch

A work option to ask about. Choose the access plan, call arrangements and opening hours that match your own schedule.

Before opening the laptop

Try a call from the seat you will use, ask where conversations belong and check how you would work if the home connection stopped. Keep one enjoyable, easy outing for after the workday.

LEAVE A LITTLE FLEXIBILITY

Pack for the day you find.

Stay terms matter in New York. Read the actual accommodation arrangement carefully and choose a legal home that suits your length of stay.

Keep an indoor option

Choose a cultural stop, a long lunch or another indoor plan you would enjoy if rain, heat or wind changes the day. Outdoor plans are easier to enjoy when you have an appealing alternative.

Small things worth carrying

- ☐ Water & something for a change in weather
- ☐ Comfortable shoes for the actual surfaces
- ☐ Your accommodation address saved offline
- ☐ A little room in the day for an unexpected stop
