A LITTLE LOCAL GUIDE TO

Tallinn

Old streets, new corners

ESTONIA

Good days, small discoveries & a rhythm of your own.

HELLO, TRAVELER

Find your little corner.

You do not need to see everything. Start with a place you would enjoy coming back to.

01 Kalamaja / Telliskivi

Creative and founder connections. Choose a home that makes your daily food and work stops easy to repeat. Walk the last stretch before deciding whether it suits the stay you want.

02 Kesklinn

Work and everyday convenience. Choose a home that makes your daily food and work stops easy to repeat. Walk the last stretch before deciding whether it suits the stay you want.

First morning

Put your bags down, find something to eat and take one short walk near your home. Learn the return route while it is light. A familiar corner is a good first discovery.

A DAY TO EASE INTO

Start small. Leave room.

Three ways to shape a first day. Use transport between areas when needed; there is no need to rush through every stop.

1

A gentle beginning

Explore Kalamaja / Telliskivi

Start with this as your first anchor, then leave time for a drink or a meal before deciding what comes next.

2

A proper pause

A proper café pause

Give this its own pocket of time. Pick the part that interests you rather than trying to cover everything at once.

3

One small adventure

Telliskivi street-art walk

Keep this as another day's possibility if the first two plans already feel full. There is no prize for finishing the list.

A FEW GOOD REASONS TO GO OUT

Follow your curiosity.

Make one outing about the old streets and another about Telliskivi's contemporary art scene. Choose a museum such as the Seaplane Harbour for a dedicated indoor session. Spreading those plans across days keeps the city from becoming a race through ticketed stops.

Choose this when you want a different pace from the rest of your day. Keep the next commitment flexible.

ONE SMALL WAY INTO A PLACE

Stay for lunch.

A proper café pause

Tallinn's cafés give you a reason to slow down between outings. Pastries, chocolate and a warm drink make a good indoor break. Step away from the busiest square to compare settings, and choose somewhere you enjoy sitting even without a laptop.

Make it your own

Choose the version that suits your appetite and dietary needs. Ask about fillings, sauces and preparation rather than assuming a dish is the same everywhere.

A little ritual

Return to a place you liked. Learn a name, notice what changes on the menu, and let an ordinary meal become part of the memory.

FOR THE DAYS YOU WORK

A desk.
A little balance.

Leave part of the week ordinary. A comfortable working day gives the exploring days room to breathe.

Before opening the laptop

Try a call from the seat you will use, ask where conversations belong and check how you would work if the home connection stopped. Keep one enjoyable, easy outing for after the workday.

LEAVE A LITTLE FLEXIBILITY

Pack for the day you find.

A cold-weather stay needs an indoor routine as well as a sightseeing list. Think about a short, comfortable route between home, groceries and your workspace.

Keep an indoor option

Choose a cultural stop, a long lunch or another indoor plan you would enjoy if rain, heat or wind changes the day. Outdoor plans are easier to enjoy when you have an appealing alternative.
